Mount Kilimanjaro cleanness Project

Every year Zara Charity organizes volunteers trek of Mt. Kilimanjaro which involves porters, guides, staffs, sponsors, partners and locals. We all climb with the goal of picking up rubbish and other unwanted materials on the mountain. This helps in preserving the mountain for current and future use. The impacts of this project have been successful; attracting environmental activists from around the world who also want to join this climb and clean Mount Kilimanjaro.

Tree Planting Project

Zara Charity has had a tree nursery in Pasua where we grow trees and supply them in different areas within Pasua and beyond. Key beneficiaries of this have been Pasua Primary school. Additionally, Zara Charity organizes community meetings where we educate locals on the importance of trees, how to take care of them and what benefit will the current and future generations will get from the trees we plant.

Maasai Pre School Project

It's well recognized that early education opportunities such as pre-school contribute to further educational development and enhance school achievement later in life. If Maasai children get pre-school opportunities where they can learn some Swahili, gain exposure to a classroom environment and learn basic skills they will be better prepared for primary school their families will be more supportive of formal education and the children will stay in school longer and do better. Our dream project for now is Maasai pre-school the aim is to rise the necessary funding to construct a pre-school and to further develop the ongoing Zara Charity and Partner projects. The purpose is to build more premises which will facilitate us to support more children. This new pre-school will make a durable change to the lives of many children who are trapped by present circumstances and it will be sustainable long term project.

Maasai women group

The maasai women group was started with an aim of supporting maasai women so as to liberate them from their traditional beliefs which are based on oppression, exploitation and subjugation of women within their society. We employ them, we educate them on their roles, rights and responsibilities as women from family level, community level as well as national level as we know that women play a vital role in enhancing the communities economic development.

Supporting Orphanage & Children Centers in Moshi

These institutions care for and educate orphans and children with difficulties in life, Zara Charity supports these centers by catering them with all matters presented to the charity.
